Hue Kim

Hue consistently demonstrates his exceptional leadership qualities as the captain of the Senior Boys Volleyball Team. Hue displays leadership qualities beyond his years and acts as a guiding voice for his teammates both on and off the court. In the Spring, Hue tore his ACL but has been working hard to overcome his injury and has proven he is an incredibly determined individual. Hue is playing this year with restrictions due to his injury, but he never seeks pity or sympathy from others. Hue always has a positive attitude and works hard to stay connected to the game and sport he loves. Hue is taking on an extra leadership role this year as he is a supporting coach for the Junior Girls Volleyball Team.

Hue is an Outstanding Gator Athlete.
